Graduate Certificate in Executive Leadership
An effective leader navigates through changing business environments, works collaboratively with multiple stakeholders, and makes decisions with incomplete or abstruse information. They continually strive for excellence – in themselves, in the teams they lead, and for their organisation. They are agile, innovative, and creative. They capitalise on opportunities, and seek out success.

The Graduate Certificate in Executive Leadership (GCELead) is designed for professionals who already have some leadership or supervisory experience and want to take their career to the next level.

This immersive program is delivered in a collaborative environment by world-class academics and industry leaders. It blends intellectual rigour with practical, hands-on learning, and focuses on contemporary issues in leadership, as well as core business activities such as finance, marketing, leadership and strategy.

Participants leave the program with razor-like business intelligence and the conviction to champion change and create lasting value.

FIVE REASONS TO CHOOSE THE GCELead

1. Learn from world-renowned academics, and senior industry leaders, giving you a fresh perspective on contemporary leadership and management practices.

2. Tailor the program to suit your needs, by choosing courses that are most relevant to your strategic career goals and your organisation.

3. Test postgraduate-level courses in a flexible delivery format, and transition, if you choose, with full credit into Asia Pacific’s leading MBA.

4. Gain practical skills you can immediately apply – all our courses employ applied learning techniques, using real-world, commercially-focussed examples and activities, underpinned by a solid theoretical framework.

5. Enjoy the convenience of our purpose-built Executive Venue in Central Plaza One, located in the heart of Brisbane’s CBD, an easy walk for city professionals, and close to public transport and parking.

A STEPPING STONE TO THE ASIA PACIFIC’S #1 MBA

UQ Business School’s Master of Business Administration (MBA) program is independently ranked as the number one program in Australia and the Asia-Pacific (AFR Boss Magazine, The Economist) and one of the top 10 MBA programs in the world (The Economist).

Most GCELead courses can be carried across as full credit to UQ Business School’s MBA, effectively acting as a stepping stone to further study.

The GCELead is an excellent choice for busy professionals who want more than a short course, but are not yet ready to commit to an MBA, or for those who have completed an MBA or another postgraduate program and are looking to learn more.

Consult the UQ Business School Executive Education team for more information about transfers or credit.

“The GCELead has provided two key opportunities. Firstly it was an opportunity to engage in the latest, cutting-edge business initiatives, in the company of other senior leaders from a variety of industry backgrounds. Secondly, hearing about the latest business concepts from pre-eminent business school lecturers armed me with leading ideas, which I was able to customise and apply within my industry.

The program will provide you with a leadership qualification and drive your passion for continued learning.”
